

Deputy Program Executive Officer for Combat Support and Combat Service Support for Acquisition, Logistics and Technology (AL&T)

Colonel Michael J. Receniello

COL Michael Receniello, a native of St. Louis, Missouri, graduated from Columbia College in 1983 where he earned a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration and a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology. He also received a Masters of Science in Operations Research from St. Louis University in 1986. He was commissioned in the Transportation Corps in 1987 upon graduation from Officer Candidate School.

COL Receniello's operational assignments include Platoon Leader, 15th Transportation Company, Platoon Leader/Executive Officer, 515th Transportation Company (POL), Company Commander, 32nd Transportation Company, Battalion Maintenance Officer, 106th Transportation Battalion, Company Commander, 1st Transportation Company, Assistant Professor Military Science, John Carroll University ROTC, Chief of Transportation and Services, 99th Regional Support Command, 416th Engineer Command, Contingency Contracting Officer, 3rd Army/CFLCC, Contracting Officer, Southern Region Contracting Center – East, Contracting Officer and most recently the Program Manager for Petroleum and Water Systems (PM PAWS). Additionally, he participated in Operation Desert Shield/Storm (Saudi Arabia, Iraq and Kuwait) 1990-1991, Operation Enduring Freedom (Bagram, Afghanistan) 2001-2002 and Operation Iraqi Freedom (Addis Ababa, Ethiopia and Baghdad, Iraq) 2003, several deployments as PM PAWS from 2006-2009 and numerous deployments to the Caribbean, Central and South America working to support Contracting missions for SOUTHCOM 1999-2001.

COL Receniello's decorations include the Bronze Star (with Oak Leaf Cluster), Meritorious Service Medal (with 3 Oak Leaf Clusters), Army Commendation Medal, and Army Achievement Medal (with 2 Oak Leaf Cluster).